Guy E. Snavely,
Ex-Officio

from Dr. Snavely

Last summer we had a pleasurable visit to historical Granada, the theatre of Moorish grandeur and Castilian history. Ever will abide in fragrant memory the visits to the ruined red Moorish Palace of the Alhambra and the most beautiful gardens surrounding the ruins of the Ganeralife Palace.

The Alhambra Palace lies beautifully on a high ridge. Several hundred feet below along a precipitous cliff runs a feeble little stream called the River Darro. Across this river and near its bottom can be easily seen from the Alhambra and Generalife cliffs the holes cut into the hills used for several hundred years as the homes of the Gypsies. No light or ventilation comes into these hovels except through the apertures excavated in the side of the hills and considered as doors and windows by the denizens.

The contrast in outlook, ideals, and ambitions as exhibited in comparing the Gypsies' caves with the Moorish palaces is realized daily among people living in this day and age.

My prayer is that every member of this college on leaving Alma Mater's study halls and frequented walks will ever strive to stay on the upper level.

By high thoughts, noble deeds, and lofty lives of work and service, each one can more readily approach the high ideals which he must have gained and nurtured here.

When one thinks of all the vice and corruption prevalent in many sections, not only in business but also in government circles, the challenge is greater than ever to a devoted and a consecrated leadership. Every member of this college should be most gravely concerned in this particular.

With wars threatening abroad, economic unrest and distress prevalent everywhere, and an apparent increase in crime of all sorts, even an optimist is almost persuaded that history will record that the present era is already in the penumbra of a period analogous to the Dark Ages.

May each and every one of you go forth as guides on the higher road that leads to happiness and success and not be laggards who will drift to the lower road leading to misery and distress.

GUY EVERETT SNAVELY

Dixie Conference

The Coaches

The perfect harmony that existed between Head Coach Jennings Gillem and his assistant, Lex Fullbright, was reflected in an undefeated, untied Dixie Conference Championship team in the 1934 season.

Champions

Unbeaten | Untied

Floyd Clark was captain of the Hilltop wonder team which completed an undefeated and untied season. Playing on the line, his work was outstanding—and an inspiration to his teammates.

The smashing 21 to 0 victory over a traditional grid rival gave Birmingham-Southern's Golden Platoon a place among the nine undefeated, untied football teams in the United States during the 1934 season. It was the first time in Panther grid history a perfect season had been completed by a Hilltop team. Coach Gillem called his team the best he ever produced.

Victims of the smooth-working Panther team were Auburn's Tigers, Loyola's Wolves, Mercer's Bears, Millsaps' Majors, Murray's Thoroughbreds, Southwestern's Lynx, Spring Hill's Badgers, Tampa's Spartans, and Howard's Bulldogs.

The undefeated, untied list follows: Birmingham-Southern, Alabama, Augustana, Ill., Minnesota, Kirksville (Mo.) Teachers, East Texas Teachers, Tufts, Mass., Trinity, Conn., Upper Iowa.

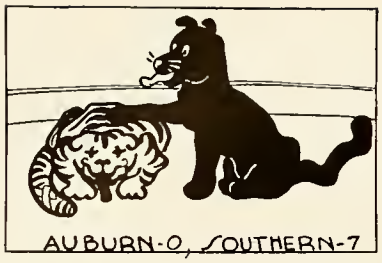

The six All-Dixie players on the Panther team were Lewis Haygood, Hermit Davis, Theron Fisher, Louie Townsend, Ray Wedgeworth, and Ernest Teel.

Resume of

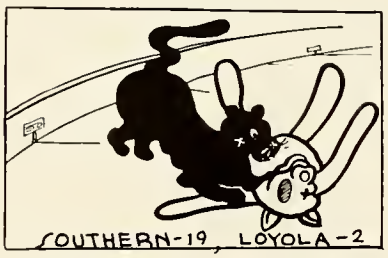

B'HAM-SOUTHERN 7, AUBURN 0

Birmingham-Southern's football team sent out a storm signal to its eight remaining grid opponents when Coach Jenks Gillem's veteran squad opened the 1934 season with a 7 to 0 win over Coach Jack Meagher's Auburn Tigers. It was an old Southern way of initiating a new Auburn coach, the Panthers having beaten two previous new Tiger mentors as they made their debut.

The stirring opening victory Friday night, September 21, in Crampton Bowl, Montgomery, came about in this way: Ray Wedgeworth, later to become All-Dixie center, pounced on an Auburn fumble late in the second quarter on the Auburn 29-yard line. The Panthers worked the ball to the Tiger 20-yard stripe, and on fourth down with one yard to go for a first down, Ike Young, Panther quarterback, sneaked over his left guard and dashed 18 yards before Quarterback Scarborough forced him out of bounds on the Tiger 2-yard line. Bill Johnson made a yard at center. The Tiger line was totally unable to hold the driving Young on the next play, and the Cat quarterback smashed over the first Panther touchdown. Davis converted.

Auburn's chance to score was wasted in the second quarter; they were halted on the Panther 19-yard line.

B'HAM-SOUTHERN 19, LOYOLA 2

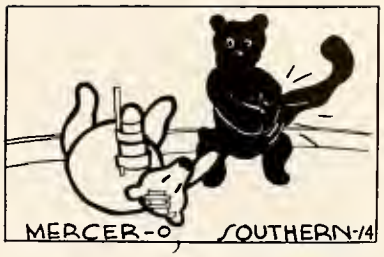

The Panthers became the South's sensation when they trounced the highly-touted Loyola Wolves, 19 to 2, Friday night, Sept. 28, on Legion Field. Coach "Doc" Erskine's boys were all they were reported to be—between the 10-yard lines; but once the Wolves advanced to the Cat danger line, they were smacked down behind the scrimmage line by fighting Panther linemen.

The first Panther touchdown came in the second quarter when Ernest Teel passed 18 yards to Lewis Haygood—right down the middle—and the fleet Panther end sprinted the last 10 yards untouched. Passes by McKay, Teel, and Young had placed the ball on the Wolves' 28. The alert Falton Lecroy covered a Loyola fumble on their 24-yard line, starting the second scoring drive. Teel passed 20 yards to Davis, who caught the ball with the assistance of a Loyola back, and stepped off the remaining four yards. Ike Young scored the final Panther touchdown when he scooped Roy's pass to Daigle off his shoe-tops and dashed 66 yards untouched across the Wolf goal.

Loyola scored when McKay failed to handle a low pass from center behind his own goal, giving Loyola a safety.

B'HAM-SOUTHERN 14, MERCER 0

Birmingham-Southern's Golden Panthers placed themselves squarely in the middle of the Dixie Conference race when they beat the Mercer Bears Friday, Oct. 13, on Legion Field, 14 to 0. Coach Gillem's team matched power with power against Coach Lake Russell's Bears, and won the ball game with alertness, precision and quickness.

Southern took the ball at mid-field in the first quarter, after McKay had gained some 30 yards on punt exchanges. Teel received a 20-yard pass from Brice McKay and weaved his way 20 more yards to Mercer's 20. McKay several plays later passed 15 yards to Haygood, who took the Mercer safety man with him as he scored. The second Panther touchdown came in the second quarter when Ernest Teel dashed from the 50 to Mercer's 20; then ran 16 yards more to Mercer's 4 on another off-tackle slant. Teel then dropped back and passed the remaining 4 yards to Brice McKay for the score. The brilliant Herm Davis added both extra points from placement.

Mercer's passing combination, Bloodworth to Morris, was its best weapon. The sophomore, Allen Bloodworth, starred with his elusive ball-carrying.

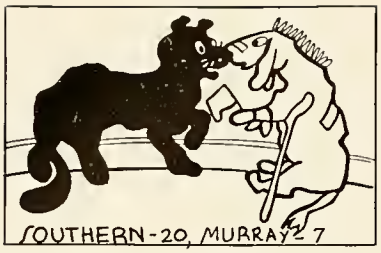

B-HAM-SOU. 28, MILLSAPS 13

With tricky reverses that worked with clock-like precision, Millsaps Majors piled up 13 points against the undefeated Panther gridders in a night game at Legion Field, Friday, Oct. 19, before the contest was 20 minutes old. The Panthers were bewildered and scattered by this unlooked-for Major attack.

Then with the lightning-like play that had characterized the Millsaps' early attack, the Panthers, led by Teel and McKay, who were doing brilliant running through a demoralized crowd of Major gridders, scored their first touchdown, Davis converting perfectly. With only three minutes to play in the half, Gillem's men began another drive. Two plays left only two or three seconds. Teel faded back to pass—the whistle sounded ending the first half—but he heaved a long pass to Haygood, who fought off two Major backs and raced for the second touchdown. The pass and run was good for 40 yards. Though the half was up, Southern cashed in on its right to try for the extra point. Teel broke the tie by adding a perfect placement. The last seven minutes of this half has been called the most exciting play ever to take place on Legion Field. Behind the excellent Panther line, McKay and Teel added two more t.d.'s in the third quarter.

B'HAM-SOUTHERN 20, MURRAY 7

The game with Murray Teachers in the Blue Grass State was only two minutes old and the battle-weary Panthers were behind 0-7. A fumbled opening kick-off by Southern on its own 15 and a swift 10 yard dash around the Panther right end had placed the fighting Cats in this deep hole. The All-American Cecil Kent for the Murray Thoroughbreds had carried the ball.

But the game was just four minutes old and the score was 7-7. Teel received the next kick-off and made a first down on his 48. On the next play, with the Southern team blocking to perfection, Brice McKay dashed off his left tackle over to the sidelines 52 yards for the first Southern score. Davis' kick was good. Before the excitement of this play had abated, Haygood had smashed a Murray back so hard on the kick-off that he fumbled on the Murray 25, Lewis recovering. Teel and McKay placed the ball on the Murray 9 with two off-tackle slants. Then Teel flipped a simple weak-side pass to Haygood for the Panthers' second touchdown. Davis' kick was good, but Southern was holding. The game was eight minutes old, and the Cats led 13 to 6.

Southern scored again in the second half on a beautiful 29-yard pass from Teel to Haygood.

B'HAM-SOU. 7, S'WESTERN 0

A pass from Ernest Teel to Brice McKay over Southwestern's goal enabled Birmingham-Southern to win its sixth straight football game and continue a dizzy pace toward a conference championship and national recognition as an undefeated, untied team. Saturday, Nov. 3, in Memphis, after being played to a standstill by the late Jimmy Haygood's Lynx, Gillem emerged with a 7-0 victory.

The lone score came in the second quarter after Southern's Rupert McCall had covered a Southwestern fumble on the Lynx 37-yard line. Teel showed his All-Dixie ability as he see-sawed off his left tackle 23 yards to the Lynx 14. Teel and McKay got four yards through a stiffening Southwestern line, and then Teel faded back and spiraled a perfect pass to McKay, who snatched the ball from the hands of three scrambling Lynx backs and sat in the end zone for the touchdown. Mac got up and added the extra point, and scoring was over.

It was McKay's high long spirals that kept the on-rushing Lynx at bay. Haygood's Lynx were fighting their hearts out the entire afternoon attempting to spoil the Panthers' perfect record. Haygood, Young, and Davis were given a much-needed rest in this contest, but Wedgeworth suffered a broken nose.

the Season

B'HAM-SOUTHERN 13, TAMPA 12

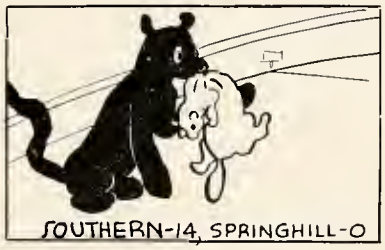

In a contest that was anything but a football game in its last minutes, Birmingham-Southern managed to escape from Tampa's outlaw football team Saturday, Nov. 10, in Tampa, Fla., winning 13 to 12. Slugging, fighting, scratching, holding, nine-man lines and screened passes predominated. The game ended by Birmingham's referee, Bob Shelton, barely escaping with his life by hailing a taxi and beating it for Birmingham.

The first Panther score came after Ray Wedgeworth had intercepted a Tampa pass in the first quarter and stumbled in midfield after he was "loose." Teel passed 18 yards to Davis, a minute later ran 15 more yards to the Tampa three, and then bucked over the touchdown. Davis' kick was wide for the only time during the season. The second Panther score came when Teel intercepted one of Tampa's 27 passes on his own 40, ran 5 yards and fumbled; then Chinny Johnson scooped up the ball and sprinted 55 yards unmolested. Davis' kick was good.

Tampa scored first in the fourth period when Southern fumbled on its 15. A penalty and three thrusts at the Cat line brought the score. Screen passes resulted in the second Spartan touchdown, several minutes later. Both extra points failed.

B'HAM-SOU. 14, SPRING HILL 0

When the high-flying Southern Panthers defeated the troublesome Spring Hill Badgers Saturday, Nov. 17, on Hartwell Field, Mobile, they won a place among the ten undefeated, untied football teams of the nation. The Badgers held the Cats scoreless in the first half, but were unable to conquer the running of Ernest Teel, always a big threat against the Catholic lads.

In the third quarter Teel passed to Herm Davis on the Badger 39. Teel circled the Spring Hill left end for 11 yards, but the Mobile boys were so rough in stopping Teel they were penalized to their 2-yard line. Ernest wiggled over to score; Davis' placement was good. The Cats scored again in the fourth quarter when Teel, Beaird and McKay carried the ball from midfield to the Badger 15 in five plays. The Hillians were penalized 5 yards for extra time, and Teel negotiated the final 10 yards in two tries. Davis again converted, and the final score, 14 to 0, was rung up.

Spring Hill's only scoring threat was a frantic last-minute passing attack conducted by Palmes—the passer—and Rutherford and Thompson, receivers. This victory set Southern for Howard.

Howard Is Swamped

Southern . . . 21
Howard 0

The most overwhelming, the most decisive, the most incomparable victory ever scored by a Birmingham-Southern football team over a Howard football team was reeled off by Coach Gillem's undefeated, untied Panthers over Coach Shorty Propst's Bulldogs Saturday afternoon, Nov. 24, on Legion Field. Working as a unit, the champion Panther senior team defeated the Bulldogs 21 to 0, and every Howard letter-wearer for months after the humiliation wore his sweater bearing the proud "H" wrong side out.

The play of the senior linemen—Hermit Davis, Theron Fisher, Dewey Mitchell, Falton Lecroy, Gordon Lofton, Capt. Floyd Clark, Ray Wedgworth, Louie Townsend, A. C. Curry and Lewis Haygood—was the outstanding feature of the game. It was the Bulldog line that had been heralded before the contest. Ernest Teel and Bill Johnson led the smart Panther backfield both on the ground and in the air. Brice McKay averaged 42 yards with his long high spirals against the 33-yard average kicked in by Howard's Dan Snell and Pete Allen. The story of the great end play turned in by Big Herm Davis and Lewis Haygood is told in the game statistics. Not one inch was gained by Howard around the Panther wings—and instead, the Bulldogs lost 29 yards.

Coach Propst's aggregation failed to smother the famed passing attack of the Panthers, and Ernest Teel passed 16 times, completing 5 for a gain of 105 yards. Teel's passes were completed to Davis and Haygood at critical points in the fracas and under the pressure of a swarm of opposing linemen.

Southern scored in every quarter, but the last, and every score was made with the quickness and precision that characterized the Panther attack all season. Hermit Davis, big Panther end who played so well in the contest that he was signed by the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National Football League as soon as he stepped off the field, personally accounted for 15 of the Panther points by kicking three extra points and scoring two touchdowns.

The first score came after Dan Snell of Howard had kicked to Bill Johnson, who fumbled one of the few times of his career. The alert Panther center recovered however on Howard's 44-yard line—a 10-yard gain. Teel was smothered on his first attempt to pass. Again Teel faded back to pass, coolly shaking off four or five tacklers while Davis was getting into the clear. Hermit took the ball—a 40-yard pass—off his shoetops, and carried the Howard safety man, Pete Allen, four yards across the goal. Davis added the extra point from placement.

The second touchdown came in the second quarter after a sustained drive featuring plunges and off-tackle dashes by Teel, Johnson and McKay had carried Southern to Howard's 15; but McKay fumbled. A few minutes later, Bill Johnson returned a punt 10 yards to Howard's 47. "Chinny" twisted and spun through center for 12 yards. Teel passed 16 yards to Lewis Haygood for a first down on Howard's 18. Haygood caught the pass on the dead run in the middle of the Bulldog secondary. Teel flipped another zepp pass to Davis, who was forced out of bounds on Howard's 3. As the fighting Panther line swept the Bulldogs before it, Ernest Teel thrust across for the score. Davis again added the ace from placement. The third touchdown resulted when Fisher and Davis blocked a punt. Davis caught the ball on first bounce and outran the speedy Allen and swift Wilcox 26 yards to cross the Howard line the third time standing up. Herm kicked the point. Howard spent the last quarter in a futile, wild passing attack that never approached the Panther goal.

Southern's

Heralded as the best football team ever to swoop down off the Hilltop, Birmingham-Southern's 1934 undefeated. untied football team, coached by Jennings Gillem and Lex Fullbright, boasted of probably the largest array of grid stars on any one team in Panther football history. Six of the fourteen seniors on the team merited All-Dixie Conference recognition. The other eight were just as deserving. Two of the stars, Ernest Teel and Hermit Davis, received All-American mention—the first time Hilltop football players had received national recognition.

The six men who contributed in large portions play that enabled the Golden Panthers to emerge victorious in nine hard football games, and who received All-Dixie recognition, were Ernest Teel, Hermit Davis, Raymond Wedgeworth, Theron Fisher, Louie Townsend and Lewis Haygood.

Raymond Wedgeworth, weighing about 165 pounds, was named first string center. "Dirty's" great defensive work, his pass defense as a floating center, and his accurate offensive play were factors which merited his recognition against such excellent centers as Lichter of Mercer, Spafford of Spring Hill, and Sullivan of Loyola. Wedgeworth opened the 1934 season against Auburn with his ankle still in a cast—it having been broken in the preceding summer. Ray received a broken finger in the Tiger game. He returned to action the next week, however, against Loyola, finger and ankle still in casts. Fruits of the Wolf scrap for "Dirty" were a couple of cracked ribs. But these minor injuries didn't keep Ray out of the Mercer game the next week. He starred at center against Lichter. It was in the Southwestern game that Ray sustained his broken nose. But Gillem and Yeilding collaborated in raising enough money to purchase Ray a special headgear-nose-guard outfit, and he kept right on playing through the Howard game.

Lewis Haygood, called the fastest end in the Conference, was the high-scoring threat for the Panthers. His forte was getting down under punts, and making the tackle after he was down. His pass-receiving ability—he led his mates in scoring—helped earn him a second string berth at end. Haygood was known as the smartest terminal man in the Conference. Together with Davis in the Howard game, Haygood allowed the Bulldogs to lose 29 yards around the Panther ends during the game, rather than gain an inch. Haygood weighed 170 pounds.

Theron Fisher, 5 feet nine inches and weighing 205 in his stocking feet, was first string choice as tackle on the All-Dixie squad. It was Fisher's driving tackle work which enabled the Panthers to stave off such formidable attacks on the Panther goal as were made by Loyola, Auburn, Murray, Mercer and Millsaps. Fisher was picked as All-Dixie tackle in his sophomore year, but a knee injury as a junior kept him from shining in 1933. His courage and stamina in returning to star in 1934 after a serious injury the year before was proof of his worth.

Hermit Davis, strapping 210 pound Panther end was unanimous choice for first string end position. He has been called the greatest end in Hilltop history. In the fall of 1935, Davis will join the professional ranks with the Brooklyn Dodgers in the national football league. The great Don Hutson will be his teammate. For three years, he was named All-Dixie end, proving his terminal work to be the best in the South.

Had not the heralded Dixie Howell been playing football at the same time, Ernest Teel, three straight years All-Dixie halfback, would have been called the best passer in the South—possibly among the nation's best. All teams both in and out of conference respected his rifle arm and dead eye. Teel, besides being a cool, accurate, deliberate passer, was one of the best running halfbacks in the conference. His off-tackle slants and shifty running gained many first downs for Gillem's team. Teel weighed 172 pounds.

Louie Townsend, weighing but 168 pounds, probably played more steady, heady minutes at guard than any other Panther lineman. His smartness in diagnosing plays, his speed and unlimited reserve strength earned him a rightful place as guard on the second selection. Townsend had the unique record of having played in every quarter of every game—without a time-out.

On the Coach Englebert's Basketeers last season rung up one of the most impressive records of the last decade on the Hilltop. Clinching the Big Four Championship for the fourth consecutive time, and trouncing Howard College in a five-game series to retain the City Collegiate Basketball title for the ninth consecutive year, Coach Ben's cagers blazed a trail in 1934-35 for future basketball teams to shoot at.

During the run of the season, the sharpshooters met and defeated such teams as Howard, Millsaps, Chattanooga, Y. M. H. A. and Boys Club. The aggregations which gave Southern her licking were L. P. I., Howard, Millsaps, and Chattanooga.

The 1935 edition of the Gold and Black loop machine was captained by Hubert Windham, all-Dixie Conference forward for two years.

Captain Hube was handicapped in the first three or four games by illness, but recuperated in time to ring up 166 points for the Panthers, reaching his peak on the Plains of Auburn when he hit the hoops for 15 points. His inspirational leadership also aided materially to the cause during the course of the campaign.

One of the greatest scoring duels ever recorded on the Hilltop, however, was waged between Guards "Chink" Vernon and "Breezy" Beaird, the latter finally winning out in the last game by one point. The sharpshooting Beaird rang up 110 field goals and 22 free shots for a total of 242 points, while the angular Vernon was accounting for 241 points comprised of 101 field goals and 39 free shots.

VERNON

COURT » » » »

J. O. Johnston, enlongated center, was also a main factor in the Panther success. Although not a high scorer, his ability to control the tip-off and his great play under the opponents' baskets helped to hold down the opposing stars. Johnston is the only member of last year's quintet returning.

"In Raymond Waid, Chink Vernon, Breezy Beaird, and Captain Hubert Windham, I have had four of the best basketball players of my career in coaching basketball at Southern," said Coach Englebert in a chapel program, paying tribute to his team. "I surely hate to see these four boys graduate," he continued, "because it will be a long time before I expect to have four players of their calibre on the same team again."

In the 1935-36 season, Coach Englebert will have Johnston back at center and will have returning Tom Braly, Bill Moseley, Ed Neville, Jack Harper, and Lucius "The Lick" Evins. This squad will be augmented by several promising recruits from the frosh, among them Jim Thomas, Hugh Corbin, Jack McKinney, and Charles Walton.

Varsity letters were awarded Captain Hubert Windham, Raymond Waid, Bill Moseley, and Tom Braly, forwards; J. O. Johnston, center; Woodrow Beaird, Chink Vernon, guards, and Lucian Rice, manager.

The high point of the season was climaxed in the annual Howard series, which was one of the most radical in recent years. The Bulldogs got the jump, winning the first game, 36 to 30. The Panthers came back and won the second game, 34 to 28, but the Bulldogs came back strong and copped the third by a close margin. The Bulldogs cracked under the strain of playing high pressure basketball, however, and the fourth and fifth contests were routs for the Panthers. Englebert's boys trampled the Bulldogs 49 to 26 on their home court in the fourth encounter, and on the B. A. C. court, Southern again romped on Coach Bancroft's 'Dogs, winning the crown with a 52 to 36 victory.

INTRAMURAL

By JOE VANCE

It is Indian summer two years ago and I am sitting on the west side of Munger Memorial Building smoking cigarettes with Ben Englebert, Birmingham-Southern's athletic director—who, besides being an athletic director, is a professor of mathematics, a championship basketball coach and no mean baseball coach, to say nothing of being head freshman football coach and official scout. I say I was smoking cigarettes with Coach Ben; what I really mean to say is I am smoking the cigarettes, because Ben doesn't smoke, except sometimes when his teams are behind in an athletic contest. But this is seldom with Coach Ben.

Ben is just returned from taking a bang-up coaching course at Northwestern University in Chicago. There he was under the instruction of some of the country's best coaches and sportsmen.

"The main reason I went to Northwestern was to outline a program of intramural sports for Birmingham-Southern," Bens says to me. "Northwestern is noted for its success in handling intramural sports. This is very peculiar," Coach Ben continues, explaining, "because Northwestern is in a big city, and it is a well-known fact that intramurals are a flop in colleges in big cities where there are many students who live in the same city."

I know that Birmingham is nothing like as big as the Windy City, which Carl Sandburg claims has shoulders as big as Maxie Baer's, but I say nothing to Coach Ben's intimation that Birmingham is like Chicago. Instead I say to him, "But what has the city part of it to do with the success of intramural sports?"

"It's like this"—Coach Ben is used to explaining and re-explaining things many times to athletes and sports writers—"in college towns, all students, practically, are out-of-town students and they are interested in campus life to a greater extent."

"Have you any definite plan in mind?" I ask.

"I think I'll use the same plan Northwestern is using with such success. Why, do you know that up there last year they had thirteen hundred students in a ping-pong tournament?"

"And that plan is?" I act surprised, but am dubious and am quite sure we'll never have that many in a ping pong tournament, because while I'm not sure how many students are at Birmingham-Southern, I'm sure there aren't thirteen hundred.

"First, I am going to pass out a printed card with the names of twelve or thirteen sports on it and ask the students to check the sport they are most interested in participating in. Then I'll divide the students of the city into zones, and with each zone having a team we will form leagues within the school and thereby arouse interest and competition."

"What about the fraternity boys? I am quite sure they won't be left out of intramural doings."

"They'll go on as usual with their own teams in a separate league," Coach Ben smiles. "I never have any trouble with the fraternity boys—they are always ready to battle each other."

"Then the winners in the fraternity league will play the winners in the non-fraternity leagues"—I get ahead, though I am aware it takes no master mind to figure this out. The plan sounds good in theory, I think, and should go over, I am supposing, after considering that Northwestern has done such a swell job with it.

Now the above conversation was with Coach Ben in Indian summer two years ago. In the early part of the past summer I am sitting on the front veranda of Coach Ben's home in the swing with Wilson Heflin, who is also loafing. Coach Ben and his wife are sitting in chairs. Mrs. Ben is repairing the numbers on the back of Panther football jersies. When we arrived, Mrs. Ben is mending the huge number 9 jersey formerly worn by Herm Davis, and which I need not explain is very much tattered.

"Coach Ben," I begin, "what success have you had with the intramural plan which you were telling me about late last summer?"

Coach Ben looks worried. I glance into the driveway and see a new automobile parked there. I surmize that he is looking worried because there are many large notes to be met on the new auto. Then again I consider that maybe his plan on intramurals has been a flop and he is not anxious to disclose the results. Heflin blandly smokes a ten-cent cigar which a salesman has sampled him with when we are attending a free picnic earlier in the afternoon.

"For the first time at Birmingham-Southern, I am ready to say that intramural sports have been a success." And Ben smiles. "We had successful tournaments in golf, baseball, basketball, tennis, fencing, swimming, horseshoe pitching, and touch football," he brags.

"But what about ping pong?" I am wondering.

"That was the only sport we worked with that we could not get organized. We installed ping pong tables in the Student Activities Building, in Simpson Building for the faculty, and in Stockham for the co-eds. Many students played on the tables, but we never could arrange a tournament," Ben says.

This is sad news to me, because I am pulling for ping pong. "According to those cards you distributed to the students, which sports were most popular with the students?" I say.

"Football, baseball and basketball," Ben does not hesitate to say. "The Kappa Alpha Fraternity won the Big Sweepstakes trophy by having the best teams in touch football and basketball," Ben adds.

SPORTS » » » »

"And the Pi Kappa Alphas won the baseball championship," I supply, because at one time I am affiliated with the Pikers.

"Sam Stubbins won the golf championship, and Harry Burns, Herbert Acton and Alec Montgomery were runners-up. In their order, these four boys formed an intercollegiate golf team which competed with fair success," Ben goes on. "Ducky Fisher came out ahead in the horseshoe pitching contest."

I am not surprised that Fisher has won, because I remember the terrible pasting the big tackle has given me in the very same tournament. Fisher, I am sure, has pitched horseshoes with the sharks around the country store up near Risen and Huntsville.

Ben doesn't need prompting any more; he goes right on reciting his program. "We had two main leagues in touch football," he says, "one for the fraternities, and one for the non-fraternities. Each team was alloted three days a week to play its regularly scheduled game on Munger bowl. The frat league had eight teams: Pi Kappa Alpha, Kappa Alpha, Alpha Tau Omega, Chi Chi, Theta Kappa Nu, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi, and Beta Kappa. Each team played the other at least two games. There were six teams in the non-frat group. This league, incidentally, was won by the dormitory team which was defeated in the championship play-off by Kappa Alpha. The other teams were Ministerial Association, Glee Club, Owenton, Northside, and Ensley."

"I take it there was lots of interest in that sport then." I am following him closely. "But what about baseball and basketball?"

"I expect next year to have the non-frat bunch lined up in both baseball and basketball leagues. They were not organized in these two sports this year; but the touch football league did plenty to promote the spirit of interest and competition between the non-frat boys," Ben explains.

I begin to see that Ben's program has been a success, and I pry him for more dope on the minor sports like fencing and tennis.

"Intramural sports tournaments produced worthy teams in two other sports, tennis and fencing," he says. "In a tennis tournament held this spring, five outstanding players were developed into a team that defeated several collegiate opponents in Birmingham, and on a road trip scored victories over the University of Alabama freshmen, Mississippi College, and Millsaps. The squad was fairly green, being composed of Tom Carter, Roy Starnes, and Ed Neville who had participated in little match or tournament play; however, Chink Vernon, a senior veteran, and Ed Alley, ace freshman racketman, who was Alabama Junior Singles champion last year, balanced things up pretty nicely."

Then Ben starts in to tell me about a French foreign exchange student who could do something besides teach conversational French and charm the ladies with an acutely antagonizing accent or a wicked dance step. This Jean Louis Mandereau fellow, who recently was acclaimed the best fencer and swordsman at Saint Cyr Military Academy, France, began fencing activities on the Hilltop last Fall—that is two years ago—teaching both men and co-eds. The main men students were Will Miller and Donnell Van der Voort. Then Mandereau's leave in this country ran out; Van der Voort graduated; and the fencing the past year was under the direction of Will Miller, whose proteges were John Ozier and Bill Miller. The two Millers and Ozier engaged Charleston College, Georgia Tech and the University of Alabama in matches, Ben tells me.

"We hope," Ben suggests, "that next year we can develop a good intercollegiate swimming team. Under Bill Daniels at the B. A. C., six or eight boys worked on their strokes, speed and starts in the spring. Gorton Wailes assisted Bill Daniels. The swimming candidates were Zeno Knapp, Herbert Baum, Wilson Heflin, Ed Mackey, John Tillia and Tom Sparks. This bunch of swimmers, all of whom will return next year but Heflin and Mackey, should get into competitive form for meets," Ben says, "because Auburn, the University, Tech, and Emory are all clamoring for engagements."

I am still worried about our deficiency in that great American indoor sport, ping pong. "Coach," I interrupt, "what's going to be with our ping pong sharks? Who was the best on the campus?"

It is here that Heflin flicks the ashes from his free ten-cent cigar and remarks rather bitterly, "Every time I tried to play, this guy Joe Shugarman or a guy by the name of Curtis Roberts are presiding at the table. They play three-out-of-five games, usually: and usually the five-game sets are just one-two-three affairs for these guys." With this, Heflin relights his cigar and frowns, because he is not used to smoking cigars—especially ten-cent ones—and he is getting a bit nauseated In fact, I do not think it will be long before he will be retching.

"That about covers the entire field," Ben concludes, making a hasty mental note with the help of his fingers.

Ben, a fine fellow, buys five gallons of gasoline on credit, and carries us to the city. On the way, Heflin and I argue about which moving picture we will attend. I argue for Les Miserables; Wilson suggests a Ring Lardner picture at the Empire with Joe E. Brown —but I object to Joe E. We finally wind up at the Alabama to see No More Ladies with Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery, Franchot Tone, and a little bit of Gail Patrick. But the picture is lousy, and we go home with a bad taste in our mouth and sour pusses.

INSURANCE FOR LIFE

Today the young man and young woman, because of his college training, realizes the need for and appreciates the value of a thorough knowledge of business practices. His broader vision permits him to see the wisdom of investing time, brains, and money in a training which will pay him monthly dividends from the time of graduation, as well as assure his future advancement. In other words, the well-educated, far-seeing, wide-awake young person of today rightly interprets a modern business training as insurance for life.

Scientifically Correct Lighting

Makes Studying Easier!

Bottom of shade about 19½ inches above the table level to throw light over entire surface of desk or table.

Glass diffuser, which throws softened light downward and reflects light upward to eliminate sharp contrasts of bright spots and shadows.

Shade has great reflecting value to give you most light where you want it.

The new I. E. S. Reading and Study Lamp is designed to make all close-seeing tasks easier and to eliminate eyestrain. Your eyes are your most valuable possession—protect them!
